
MYP curriculum requires learning at least TWO languages, to develop intercultural understanding and affirm their own identity

MYP curriculum emphasises intellectual challenge, encouraging students to make connections between their studies in traditional subjects and the real world

MYP assessment is criterion-related, with objectives as defined by the IB.

Two hour exams in four subjects and portfolio based assessment in the remaining - all designed to focus on capital understanding and the application of knowledge in an unfamiliar setting

MYP curriculum requires a community project in years 3-4, and a personal project in years 4 or 5
